

Vacancy Name: Patent Searcher
Location: ASML Netherlands B.V., Veldhoven
Sector: Technology
Department: Corporate Intellectual Property

About ASML: www.asml.com

Department Information:

Within ASML, the Technology sector is responsible for definition and development of products and technologies. Within the sector Technology the department Corporate Intellectual Property is responsible to provide global intellectual property assistance to protect and support ASML's business. In particular the department is responsible to establish and maintain a portfolio of patent rights.

Organization Position:

The Patent Searcher reports to the Manager Search & Competitive Intelligence, who reports to the Chief IP Counsel.

Job Mission:

Search, find, analyze and visualize all relevant information regarding patents and new technological developments.

Job Description:

- Conduct searches: Novelty, Validity, Clearance, Collection, Portfolio, Patent Status.
- Maintenance and further development of ASML's Patent Rights Alert System.
- Gather publications in all fields that may be relevant to ASML technology.
- Inform engineers of ASML about relevant technological developments within the semiconductor industry.

Education Level: Masters degree
Education Description: University of Technology. Degree in for instance Mechanics or Physics.
Experience: Preferably a few years of experience as patent searcher. However, also candidates who just have finished the Patent Information Specialist course from GO Opleidingen, are invited to respond.
Skills: Good analytical skills. Linguistical talent. Fluent in English. Academic level of thinking.
HRMcontact: Ber Deriks
Manager: Ton van Hoef
Group leader: Evert Nijhof, for more information: evert.nijhof@asml.com (or in his absence: gerard.ypma@asml.com)
Recruiter: Frank Wolfs