

Content Specialist (m/v)

Organisation

LexisNexis Univentio, part of the Reed Elsevier group, is a leading, globally orientated company focusing on providing software, systems and content for online intellectual property (IP) research based on leading-edge database and data processing technologies.

LexisNexis Univentio currently owns the largest global commercial and electronically accessible collection of patent information.

From our facility in Rijnsburg, The Netherlands, we consolidate IP content from a variety of global sources and produce a unique, value-added data set that our clients can access through numerous means for internal processing. LexisNexis Univentio furthermore operates as global intellectual property center of excellence for the entire group of companies.

In support of our organization we are currently searching a Content Specialist with a background in Patent data who can support our Content Manager and his team.

What we expect:

You are a flexible, interested and motivated content specialist who can fit into a small core team but is willing and able to own and drive his own sub-projects. You are used to do what it takes to get the job done and are willing to learn new skills.

Required experience in:

- Patent data
- Patent searches
- Writing functional specifications
- Structured data formats
- Production process knowledge
- Solid understanding of Business Processes
- Good written and spoken English
- Dutch language skills are a plus
- HBO education (Bachelor/Masters)
- A minimum experience of 4 years is required in this field

LexisNexis Univentio offers:

- Market conform employment terms
- Involvement in complex global projects
- Informal working environment
- A small and dynamic organization where you can make a change

An assessment can be part of the selection process.
